

LONDON MARATHON CLUB ENTRY CRITERIA

Appendix IV – to qualify for the London Marathon club entry the following criteria must be met:

1. The runner must be a paid up member of Forfar Road Runners.
2. The member must have entered the race with an intention to compete.
3. Having been rejected in the Ballot a rejection slip or official notification is handed to the club Secretary.
4. Priority will be given to First-time London entrants. If more than one a ballot will be held.
5. If no first-timers meet the criteria, priority will then shift to previous London Marathon competitors. If more than one a ballot will be held.
6. If on receipt of club entry or entries the runner is forced to withdraw from the race due to injury or illness a process of substitution exists. Priority will then be given to someone on paragraph 4. Thereafter paragraph 5 will apply.
7. All disputed will be decided by the Club Committee, whose decision is final.
